Relief Society Conference.

The Relief Society conference of the Utah stake will be held in Lehi, Monday, April 30th. A full attendance is desired. Mrs. MARY JONES, President.

The New Spring Hats

Are all adorned with roses. The roses on your cheeks can be retained by using Parks' Tea. It cleans the blood of impurities, moves the bowels every day and gives health and strength to the user. Sold by Smoot Drug Co.

Jealousy Stings.

The effects of nervousness are varied and amusing. One young mezzo soprano was prevented just in time from walking on to the platform in a huge pair of fur lined overshoes, which were put on above her slippers, and which contrasted comically with her dainty gown.

Another songstress, who was gifted with a good verbal memory, was singing without note. During a rather elaborate symphony preceding the second verse of her song she chanced idly to glance at the book of words which she was holding. Confusion followed. She could not link the melody with the poem. It was a terrible moment, but she stepped swiftly to the piano, glanced at the accompanist's copy and finished her song com amore. It appeared on inspection that by a printer's error two lines of her song had been left out of the book of words. This had confused her and was the cause of her failure to blend words and music together.—Atlanta.

Why Don't You

Use Parks' Tea for headache, constipation and "that tired feeling." It purifies the blood, beautifies the complexion, acts upon the sluggish liver and moves the bowels every day. On herbs and plants, safe and pleasant. Sold by Smoot Drug Co.

The Oldest Dressmaker's Bill

Most likely the oldest dressmaker's bill in the world has been discovered on a Chaldean tablet, dating 2800 B. C. It has an entry of "92 pure vestments for the priests." Among the items are "10 white robes of the temple, eight robes of the house of his lady, 10 collars of the house of his lady, 10 pair of gold collars, two white robes and four scarlet robes." Also "two wipers," probably scarfs for binding about the waist.—Philadelphia Ledger.

It Depends.

"Papa," said Johnny, who has recently joined a debating society, "is it correct to say 'The nose has it,' or 'The nose have it?'"

"It depends, my son, on whether you are talking about a nose or about a cold in the head."—London Punch.

Our Grand mothers' Way

Was to steep roots and herbs and use it every night. We can do the same by using Parks' Tea. Nothing acts so promptly and without discomfort. Not a pill or a cathartic but moves the bowels every day. Sold by Smoot Drug Co.
